Greg Johnson PT, DPT, CSCS

University of Montana, School of Physical Therapy and Rehabilitative Science 2017

Greg is from Ellensburg, WA and completed his undergraduate degree in Exercise Science at Eastern Washington University in 2011. He and his wife Sarah moved to the Flathead Valley shortly after and he worked as a personal trainer at Flathead Health and Fitness and as a Physical Therapy Tech at PTA while waiting to get accepted into PT school. He received his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from the University of Montana in 2017 and returned to the Flathead Valley with Sarah, and their two sons, Kelton and Kade. Greg enjoys the outpatient orthopedic setting and has interest in all areas of orthopedic and sports related rehabilitation and injury prevention. He holds an additional certificate with the National Strength and Conditioning Association as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

Greg enjoys all strength sports and has competed in numerous Powerlifting competitions and a Highland Games event with aspirations of competing in U.S. Strongman one day. He also enjoys golfing when he gets the chance.
